

PRESS RELEASE

Merex markets are happy to announce that we will be attending the MENA 13th Forex Show for managed funds and investment opportunities on the 30th and 31st of March 2014.

As the official sponsors of the show we are proud to be a part of the exhibition where we hope to be meeting you soon, answering all your questions and giving you advice on your potential investments.

The MENA Forex show is an annual exhibition for managed funds and investment opportunities successfully held in Dubai and has been a meeting point for industry professionals and interested investors, becoming the starting point of many successful partnerships and endeavours.

The exhibition welcomed more than 1000 investors from all over the Middle East, and over 50 exhibitors from all over the world last year alone.

Meet us at Jumeirah Beach Hotel in Dubai for pleasant networking opportunities over lunches and dinners topped by an award show for all the attendees. We are looking forward to meeting our next successful partnerships soon.

About Merex Markets

We have managed hundreds of Forex managed accounts for clients around the world through successful partnerships and satisfying results.

With liquidity providers from financial centres such as the United Kingdom, Switzerland and Australia we offer high end trading and high profit returns, through ethical and completely transparent work.

Always putting our clients first we have kept our status as one of the leading account management firms, with exceptional and unparalleled returns for each and every one of our investors.

Our top quality service comes from our technically advanced tools which generate maximum earnings and our clients depend on our expertise commitment and optimum trading strategies, something we take very seriously.